

Michigan Audubon Society Quarterly News Letter 1923-1926

January-April 1926

Volume 4

Protection-Why? No.1

Winter Bird Feeding No.1

Friend Bob-White No.1

What Sort of Sportsman I Mean To Be by Morris Huberman No.1

Why Trees and Birds Love Each Other No.2

Why Little Birds Love Trees by Russel Watson No.2

Why Trees Love Birds by Edith R. Mosher No.2

Will the Number of Birds in This Country Affect the Cost of Houses in 1976 by Charles Lathrop No.2

The Town Forest in Michigan by John C. DeCamp No.2

January – October 1925

Volume 3

My Feeding Station This Winter by Arthur D. Moore No.1

Poor Bob-White!! No.1

Bird Notes-European Starling, Horned Larks, Red-winged Blackbirds, Evening Grosbeak, American and White-winged Crossbills, Evening Grosbeaks, Robin, Spruce Hens, Golden Eyes, American Mergansers, Redpolls, Bohemian Waxwing.No.1

Huron Audubon Society No.1

Michigan Conservation Conference No.1

Michigan Land Economics Survey by H. J. Andrews No.2

Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs by Mrs. Jon J. Cox No.2

The predatory Species by Ben East No.2

Progressive Conservation by Edgar Cochrun No.2

Junior Audubon Clubs by Mrs. Ora M. Birtch No.2

A Plea for Our Vanishing Native Shrubs and Wildflowers by Prof. Mary A. Goddard No.2

Tree Study by Miss Edith R. Mosher No.2

The Mystery of the Swamp- Bittern by Frederick Hermann No.2

The Breeding Grounds of Michigan's Gulls and Terns by Walter E. Hastings No.2

A New Method of Hunting Birds: Banding by Prof. J. W. Stack No.2

Wildlife Conservation thru Michigan Schools by Prof. T. I. Hankinson No.2

Spring Arrivals- Census No.2

News Items- Bob White as a Song –bird- "Ming Bill" No.2

The Kalamazoo Audubon Club established No.2

National Campaign Against the Steel Trap No.3

Bird Notes- Golden-winged, Chestnut-sided, Greenland Wheatear, Horned Larks. Blue-winged Warbler, Iceland Gull, Herring & Ring-billed Gulls, Gambel Sparrows, White-crowned Sparrows, Lincoln Sparrow, Harris Sparrow, Jack Pine Warbler No.3

Bird Notes-Ruby-crowned Kinglet (Breeding), Harris Sparrow, Mocking Bird, Swallow-tailed Kites. Lincoln Sparrows, Philadelphia Vireo, Jack Pine Warbler, Carolina Wren No.4

Automobile Victims-32 individual species of birds – largest victim was the Red-headed Woodpecker at 33 individuals No.4

Songbirds Expensive Food-three individuals fined $500 for killing songbirds for food. No.4

Conservation News-No.4

The Conservation Council of Michigan No.4

January-October 1924

Volume 2

Michigan Needs More Sanctuaries by Lee R. Dice No.1

Lookout for Our Gulls and Terns by Walter E. Hastings No.1

Michigan's Plan for Privately Owned Sanctuaries –Act. 360, Sec.1 No.1

Reserves Owned by Members No.1

Jackson County Audubon Reserve No.1

Huron Audubon Reserve No.1

Bulletins on the Sanctuary Idea No.1

Pileated Woodpecker VS Woodcock No.1

Bird Banders Listen! No.1

John James Audubon No.2

More About Michigan Gulls and Terns No.2

Breevort Lake bird returns No.2

Lo the Poor Crow No.2

The Tide of Migration Oakland to Chippewa County. No.2

More Banders Needed No.2

The Spring Soil No.2

Highway Trees Not Personal Property No.2

Be Kind to Animals Week-April 6 No.2

The Holy Father Asks Catholics to Protect Birds (from "New World) Paris, Nov. 24, 1923 No.2

Birds and Better Homes by Dr. Caroline Bartlett Crane No.3

Michigan Plans for Roadside Development by P.H. Reynolds No.3

Discussions; roadside and streamside conditions and Bob-white No.3

Bird Study in Battle Creek Schools by Mrs. G. Lamson No.3

Nature Study in School by Margaret Thomas No.3

Wild Birds Receive a College Education- Bird Banding by Prof. J. W. Stack No.3

Lansing Branch No.3

The High School Bird Club by Miss Myrtle Creaser No.4

Woodman Spare That Christmas Tree and Bittersweet No.4

The Case of the Bobolink No.4

Bird Notes-South-bound Migrants at the Soo, Blue Jays No.4

What is Sportsmanship? No.4

January –July 1923

Volume 1

Executive Committee Meeting-English Sparrow bounty, Kingfisher, hawks and owls attitude needs to be combated No.1

Coming Legislation- two bills for controlling cats and protecting Bob-white No.1

Arbor and Bird Day-May 4, 1923 No.2

Bob-White to be protected five more years No.2

Hunting With Little Metal Tags Instead of Guns-Personal Experiences in Bird Banding by Arthur D. Moore No.2

To Provide for the Cultivation and Increase of Wild Life in this State –Act 360 Sec.1
of Michigan Game Laws –Private Lands as sanctuaries No.2

Birds in Relation to Agriculture by Prof. J. Milton Hover No.3